CRESCENTS INDULGE IN ANOTHER ROUGH BATTLE BUT POLICE ARE WINNERS

Regina Caps Retain Second Place in League by Defeating Saskatoons Four to Nothing. But Contest Was Rough All Through and Free-for-All Started in Third Period—Police Are Winners

REGINA, Feb. 26.—Police were forced to end a free-for-all fight here tonight during the professional hockey game between the Regina Capitals and the Crescents of Saskatoon which the Regina team won by a score of 4 to 0.

The game was one of the most rough and brutal contests of the season, the players made fast play impossible and the tussle early in the match was the chief feature.

Hopelessly outclassed, the Crescents who went through the game without a proper comment to rough it up, as they did in the first period, got beyond control, and the climax came after ten minutes of play in the third period when the arena was crowded with players. When Mattie, the time-keeper, who was the time-keeper, Mattie, who was doing a five minute penalty, took off his shirt, the referee stopped the game and chanced in which players would run on the ice. In the excitement, fans jumped into the frays and a second disturbance took place in front of the spectators. Matsie was finally cleared and Matsie was ejected from the arena.

Busted Exhibition

Never has such a display of rough play been given here as that of the Crescents last night. They hardly any time in the game when one of the Regina players was in the penalty box. McVeigh was sent out of the game when he was given a five minute penalty and paled up a score of 12 goals to 3.

It was a roaring game in which the Vancouver Maroons, after a couple of slow starts, put up a good show and beat the Hawks. Parkes and Deneney, all recruited this year to the senior league, showed to big advantage.

In the senior league, the new standouts points ahead of Victoria with Seattle two points behind. The Maroons, who had their first game in the senior league series against Victoria and Seattle play their other games in the senior schedule.

Universities Should Challenge for the Allan Cup Through the Provinces

SASKATOON, Feb. 25.—Recognized as the C.A.H.A. that western universities challenge through the Allan Cup instead of through the western inter-collegiate union, was the suggestion of Dr. J. W. McCormack, president of the S.A.H.A. here Monday.

The Allan Cup is the advanced inter-provincial all-star competition in future and also the Canadian bonanza for the amateur university cup games.

Dr. Kinn, Prince Albert, was elected president, A. P. Pascoe, Moose Jaw, vice-president. The president will be appointed by the president.

GIRE OFFERED BOAT

NEW YORK, Feb. 26 (UPI)—Gire, who lost the United States light heavyweight championship to Joe Pescatello at Madison Square Garden Friday, announced today that he had accepted terms for a match with Jack Bloomfield, English bulldog, in Boston, some time in March.

The offer was not yet accepted.

Safe Way to Get Rid of Blackheads

There is one simple, safe, and sure way to get rid of blackheads. That is to do nothing to them. To do anything to them, even to touch them, may do more harm than good. If you do touch them, always do so gently. If you do not touch them, you will be surprised how well the blackheads have disappeared. They are not really blackheads, no matter where they are, simply minute particles of dust and dirt and sebum that have become embedded in the pores perched on the surface of the water droplets. If you do not touch them, they will be removed by the natural processes of the body.

They are not really blackheads, but are the pores free and clean and in their natural condition.

THE SALARY DOESN'T MATTER.

Sir Henry Thornton is to get $50,000 per year for managing the National Railway system. He will earn the money and be cheap at the price if he can bring the revenues and expenditures of the system into a more profitable relationship. It is better to pay fifteen thousand dollar salary than a fifty million dollar deficit.

GIVE THEM A CHANCE.

If the merchants of Edmonton or any other city think they are getting a large amount of business done by keeping their stores open six full days in the week, just why should the Legislature refuse to let them do it? The complaint everywhere is that business is dull, and that because it is dull jobs are scarce, money is not circulating freely, and everybody has that hard-up feeling as though he got out of the way to put hobbies on anyone who wants to help break up the stagnation?

NOT GETTING OUT YET.

The Bill, which the administration at Washington is trying to get rid of the gigantic fleet of merchant ships which were built with public money and have been swinging idle in a score of harbors for four or five years, had to be dropped because of opposition in Congress. Can it be placed on the tax bill and removed from consideration, of a man kind, out of the failure of their neighbors to get rid of the elephant so easily. We have a Government merchant marine of our own. Not nearly so large, of course, but plenty large enough unless it is doing twice what it did in former years to make the taxpayers wish some body would kidnap it.

WHAT FOOD WAS SCARCE.

The American Relief Administration announces that it will send more food to the starving Russians. The administration has discovered that while it was feeding the famine victims the Soviet Government was shipping grain out of the country and filling up its depleted treasury with foreign gold—to be used of course in keeping the Red Army in trim for the invasion of the United States and other parts of the non-Bolshevik world. The notion that Lenin is a fool may as well be dismissed. Anybody who can put a deal like that over Mr. Hoover and an organization of American business men has to be as clever as he is crooked.

A ROUND-UP AT SASKATOON.

The Saskatoon police have made a round-up of "dope" peddlers, and the magistrate has sent six of them to jail for terms ranging from the month to a year. The offense is a technical one never before. Hanging is the only capital punishment for this crime, and it may be that before the business is stopped the criminal code will have to be changed so as to make it applicable. In the meantime the last might do something to put terror into the minds of the dispensers, and it could be included in a bill of rights. By the way, the dispatch gives the names of three of the culprits sentenced at Saskatoon, apparently all Chinamen. That is another phase of the law enforcement which needs to be attended. White women and white men can often obtain all their supplies from Celestials. The "respectable" white distributor has less excuse than his yellow competitor, and should get worse treatment at the hands of the magistrates.

A HAPPY RELEASE.

The Government members of the Legislature are to be congratulated on their narrow escape from having to line up on the question of "group government"—so eloquently and insistently expounded by Mr. Justice Walsh. It is not to be denied that many representatives can and do avoid the unpleasant choice of repudiating the basic doctrine of their organization or of convicting themselves of treason to their professed principles. The Greenfield Government has done less for the farmers than any administration that preceded it. If the supporters of the Government proclaimed their faith in the creed handed down by Mr. Wood they would thereby raise the question why the Government is still in power. If they confessed that they had lost faith in the creed they would raise the question why they are still in power. The Greenfield Government, however, made for Rocky Mountain extricated them from a decision which might have prevented Mr. Headley promising us another three or four years of the present administration before an election is called.

THIS WINTER OF OURS.

We are not yet through February, and March is still to come, and of course it is a mistake to take too much for granted as to the conduct of the winter climate. We are in the middle of it now. Still, we cannot count fair assurance that four-fifths of the winter are past, including the worst of it. If from this on the weather does not literally follow the instructions of Mr. Cone and get "better and better every day" there is good ground for fear that the winter will not make any prolonged excursions into the lower decks. In point of fact it would be difficult for the best intentioned weather in the world to get better and better starting from the record of the last week. Zero weather in Lower Alberta is not easy to come, nor is it very strong. There is something that looks and feels very much like spring. The first robin has not yet been reported, and the spring flowers have not yet begun to push, but both these marvels may be supposed to be on the way and due to appear in the reasonably near future. The temperature of the days is very moderate, with the youngsters trotting off to school a half hour earlier, and daylight lingering to show the homeward path to the chap who sticks it out at the office until six o'clock bell rings. We are, in fact, one-third of the way of the longest day of the year.

We are always hoping for the best. Javelins in this latitude are in prudence bound to view the approach of winter with apprehensions that it will justify the pictorial representations on the Christmas cards. As is frequently the case, Albertans are not afraid of snow, but the snowfall has been excessive. The periods of low temperature have been few, and not lengthy. We have had no blizzards, in this part of the province at any rate, and the snows have been twice as deep as the depth of the blizzards bring us regularly. Residential interests do feel that they have sufficient ground to claim that there has been more wind than is at all common here, or at all necessary. Windy days have been unseasonably plentiful, the breezes have at times persisted in blowing when the mercury has been near zero, and days have been so cold that frost doth freeze the chap who sticks it out at the office until six o'clock bell rings. We are, in fact, one-third of the way of the longest day of the year.
